HYPER BOLE 2019 – REGISTRATION PACKET

---

On Saturday, October 12th 2019, teenage poets from DC, Maryland, and Virginia will come together for the sixth annual Hyper Bole regional youth poetry competition and festival. Armed with nothing but their thundering voices, creative minds, courageous hearts, and true stories, student poets will enjoy one full day of master classes, performances, and individual slam competition. The Grand Slam Finals that Saturday evening will culminate the one day festival, where one student will be crowned the 2019 Hyper Bole Champion.

The Hyper Bole 2019 is a collaboration between Split This Rock Youth Programs and George Mason University's Patriot Activities Council; Office of Diversity, Inclusion, and Multicultural Education; School for Conflict Analysis and Resolution; and the Office of Admissions.

If you have received this packet, it is because you have been designated as the adult supervisor/sponsor for at least one participating student. Please print out and distribute the "Festival Permission Form," the last page of this document, to each student whom you are responsible for supervising. Each participating student must have this form signed by his or her parent/guardian and submitted by you, the adult supervisor, on the morning of the event in order to be eligible to participate.

Please arrive promptly at 10:00 a.m. at GMU's Johnson Center for final registration and check in. All of the participants' registration fees will be collected at this time, as well. If the student is competing in the event, the registration fee will cover entry to the competition, dinner, and a t-shirt. If the student merely wants to participate in the workshops and participate in the day's other festivities as a spectator, the registration fee will cover just a t-shirt and dinner. We encourage you to collect all of your students' registration fees before the date of the event to ensure accountability. Although the registration fee will cover dinner, you and your students may want to bring additional money to purchase snacks throughout the day

Please let us know if you have any questions! We will continue to keep you updated as the event draws near. We thank you for your participation, and we look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

REQUIREMENTS AND GUIDELINES FOR PARTICIPATION

1. THE HYPER BOLE 2019 is on Saturday, October 12th, 2019. The day's festivities will commence and conclude at George Mason University's Johnson Center. Any students who are interested in partaking in the day's activities are eligible to participate, provided that they abide by the rules and pay the registration fee! Participants and their adult supervisor(s) must arrive at Johnson Center at 10:00 a.m. for registration/check in. The event will conclude after the Grand Slam Finals which will run from 6:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m. Please clear your schedules and make sure you can be in attendance all day with your student(s).
2. REGISTRATION DEADLINE: FRIDAY, OCTOBER 4TH, 2019. Please submit your online registration form to us no later than 6:00 p.m. on Friday, October 4th, 2019. We will need all participants' names, e-mail addresses, and phone numbers. There are a limited number of spaces, both for contestants and non-competitive participants, so we encourage you to register as soon as possible.
3. If you are a poetry club sponsor, your students' registration fees must be paid on the day of the event. The registration fee is $25 per participating poet, which covers entry to the competition and workshops, a t-shirt, and dinner. If you are registering five or more students, registration is only $20 per student! If you have students who are interested in participating in the day's activities but not competing, they must register separately as "Non-Competitive Participants." The "Festival Permission Form," the parental consent form enclosed in the registration packet that will be provided for you upon registration, will be collected at this time, as well. Additional registration forms will also be available on the morning of registration.
4. If you are a student not affiliated with a school sponsored poetry club, your registration must be paid on the day of the event by the adult supervisor whose information is provided on your registration form. If your adult supervisor is not present to submit your payment, then we cannot accept your registration fee and you will be politely turned away. The registration fee is $25.00 and includes entry to the competition and workshops, a t-shirt, and dinner. The "Festival Permission Form," the parental consent form enclosed in the registration packet that will be provided for you upon registration, will be collected at this time, as well. Additional registration forms will also be available on the morning of registration.
5. If you are a student merely interested in partaking in the day's activities but not competing, your registration must be paid on the day of the event by the adult supervisor whose information is provided on your registration form. If your adult supervisor is not present to submit your payment, then we cannot accept your registration fee and you will be politely turned away. The registration fee is $10.00 and includes entry only to the workshops, a t-shirt, and dinner. The "Festival Permission Form," the parental consent form enclosed in the registration packet that will be provided for you upon registration, will be collected at this time, as well. Additional registration forms will also be available on the morning of registration.
6. Registration fees must be paid in the form of cash or check on the day of the event. Please make checks out to "Split This Rock" with "Hyper Bole 2019" on the memo.
7. There MUST be an adult supervisor/sponsor responsible for supervising his/her participants. Although we will be in a safe and contained space, supervising all of the schools' poets may be a bit difficult, and we need to ensure that there is at least one adult sponsor per team.
8. Each participant must have a minimum of two poems prepared for the day. The two poems used for the initial two-round preliminary bout may be used again in the two-round Grand Slam Finals, assuming the participant advances.
9. If you are an adult supervisor, please lead by example and help your students mix and mingle and meet new people. This is a community-building initiative and we appreciate your help in making it possible.
10. In the unlikely event that the Hyper Bole is cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances, arrangements will be made to hold the competition at a later date and an alternate venue.
11. Earning the most points and winning the slam is not the purpose of the Hyper Bole. The purpose is to share in the art of performance poetry, bond with new people, and honor the stories, feelings, and talent of the poets participating. Remember: "The points are not the point! The point is the poetry!"

COMPETITION RULES

- Sponsors and students must arrive by 10:00 am on Saturday, October 12th, 2019 at George Mason University's Johnson Center. The adult sponsor must be present with each participant to register.
- Students must remain on GMU campus and may only leave with permission of teacher.
- Every registered poet must have a minimum of two poems prepared for the day. The two poems used for the initial two-round preliminary bout may be used again in the two-round Grand Slam Finals, assuming the participant advances.
- Poets have 3 minutes to perform with a 10 second grace period. Going over 3:10 results in a 0.5 deduction from total score per 10 seconds starting at 3:10 (i.e. 3:10= -0.5; 3:20= -1; 3:30 = -1.5; etc). The time starts at the first utterance after the poet says her name, school, and poem title.
- Poems must be original and of the poet's own construction. NO PLAGIARISM allowed, or it will result in disqualification.
- Poets may NOT use any props, costumes, or musical accompaniment (this can include mentioning and touching clothing or jewelry; we will explain).
- Good sportsmanship is required. Booing or trying to sabotage another poet/school is unacceptable.
- The poets will be judged by three audience members on a scale of 0.0 to 10.0. This means that the highest possible score is a 30. Unlike traditional poetry slams, however, the scores from the preliminary bouts will not be announced to the slam's participants and spectators immediately following each poem.
- Profanity and hate speech are prohibited. Poets cannot use profanity (including the n-word), sexually explicit content, and/or language that degrades any group of people. Violation will result in a 1.5 point deduction from the poet's total score; potential disqualification; and scorn from the host, organizers, and parents.
- Food and drink may not be consumed in the GMU lecture halls. Bottled water is permitted.
- Memorization of poems is not required, but highly recommended. All poets, however, are not allowed to physically hold a piece of paper or handheld device while performing; doing so will result in a 1.5 point deduction and/or potential disqualification. If a poem is not memorized, it may be placed on the music stand we provide, and poets will not be penalized by the judges for doing so.
- There will be 5 or 6 preliminary bouts Saturday. Five or six bouts will be taking place simultaneously from 12:00 –1:45 p.m. and the Grand Slam Finals will take place from 6:00 – 8:00 p.m.
- Before each preliminary slam, the bout manager and will draw numbers to determine the order of the two-round slam. This order will be reversed in the second round of the bout.
- The top two scoring poets from each preliminary bout will advance to the Grand Slam Finals at 6:00 p.m. Again, unlike traditional poetry slams, the scores from the preliminary bouts will not be announced to the slam's participants and spectators immediately following each poem; the scoring from the preliminary slams will be done silently. The finalists will be announced at the beginning of the Open Mic in the afternoon.
- The winner of the Grand Slam Finals will be awarded a $1,000 prize! This scholarship will be awarded upon the winner's high school graduation and may be used for any post-graduate activities or needs.

MAP AND DIRECTIONS TO GEORGE MASON UNIVERSITY'S JOHNSON CENTER

The Johnson Center, the location where the festival will commence and conclude is #29 (the red building). The two purple buildings that have a rectangle around them are general permit parking garages closest to the venue that you may park in, though you may incur a parking fee.

Lot A, the parking garage with a red circle around it, is, at times, a free parking lot over the weekend, so you may also park there if you wish to avoid incurring any parking fees.

You may visit <http://www.gmu.edu/resources/welcome/Directions-to-GMU.html> for any additional information.
